Volunteers, please sign up in the HPP office.

Carpet Installation almost Complete!

In case you're wondering, "Urban Garden" is the design chosen for the hallways and "Leaflet" is the name of the design for the elevator lobbies. Many people have reacted positively to the new carpet and are especially happy that the carpet tiles are stain-resistant and won't show dirt easily.

Thanks again to the Carpet Committee:
Craig Williams, Serena Tzeng, Christine Trecker, Rick Baldwin and Kathy Crosier.

"Does 'high-rise' refer to the building or the budget?"

New Board Member!

Please welcome the newest member of the Board of Directors, Kelly Brehm, who will serve out the remaining term of Kevin Mulligan. Kelly has lived at Honolulu Park Place since 1992 and is an employee of the Department of Homeland Security. Kelly has a keen eye for design and color and will be a great asset on the Board as we continually strive to keep Honolulu Park Place an A-1 class building.

Welcome, Kelly!

HPP Security Staff

Kalei Kealoha

Kalei Kealoha joined the security team at Honolulu Park Place in December 2015. As a full-time staff member, he works the morning shift, Monday through Friday.

He came from the Big Island where he worked on his family cattle ranch. From 2003-2009, he served as a substance abuse counselor for adults and high school students, and was a football coach for high school students and Pop Warner football.

Kalei finds each day presents different scenarios and challenges. He says the residents are friendly, and he gets along with his co-workers and his supervisor, Nate Dudoit.

As a hobby, he builds custom computers for online gaming for family and friends. Football, basketball and baseball are his favorite sports. Kalei also enjoys surfing, diving, fishing, hunting and horseback riding. -Interview by Mimi Yoshikawa

Meet Your Neighbors

Chan Cheng King, Ph.D

Dr. Chan (seated left) and his family

Dr. Chan Cheng King was born in 1920 in Vietnam. After he completed his Master of Science and Doctoral degrees in Botany at Penn State University in the record time of twenty-seven months, he was hired by his alma mater as Associate Professor. In 1982, he retired from Penn State University after an illustrious academic career.

Dr. Chan, his late wife, and son were among the first owners to move into Honolulu Park Place in May 1991. He has the distinction of being our oldest owner-resident. In addition to Mandarin, he has fluency in English and Cantonese. His insights on global historical events and his extensive biblical knowledge are impressive. His faith and church activities have been a significant part of his life.

Dr. Chan lives with his son, Dr. Chan Yan-pui, who has a downtown dentistry practice. He also maintains close ties with his daughter, Dr. Sophia C. Young, a neuro-radiologist in New Jersey. He has two grandsons, one who won an international award as an outstanding young scientist, and the other will soon be graduating from medical school. -Interview by Mimi Yoshikawa;
