In furtherance of the building(s) presenting a uniform exterior appearance, no Owner or occupant shall do anything to change the exterior appearance of the building(s), without the prior written consent of the Board.

All items of equipment belonging to the Project, shall be subject to rules and regulations adopted from time to time by the Board, in the Board's discretion.

All pets must be registered with the Board or the Managing Agent immediately upon being kept in an Apartment. Permanent residence is hereby defined as residence of thirty-two (32) consecutive days or more.

SECTION 3. Air Conditioning. For purposes of allocating the cost of operating the central air conditioning system, the Project shall be divided into two (2) zones, designated Zone A and Zone B respectively. Zone A shall consist of the enclosed area of the forty (40) story tower from the third through the fortieth floors inclusive containing; without limitation, apartments, hallways, stairways and elevators. Zone B shall consist of, without limitation, the enclosed areas of the Facilities of the Park Place Club, the office of the resident manager, the employee kitchen and lounge, any maintenance, equipment and custodial storage rooms, hallways and any other enclosed and air conditioned Common Element areas not included within Zone A. The Board shall allocate the cost of operating the air conditioning system in the following manner:

The Board shall determine the total cost of electrical energy to produce and distribute chilled water (the "Energy Cost") for the entire Project, and the Energy Cost for Zone B, by metering if practicable and, if not, by a licensed engineer's estimate; the Energy Cost for Zone A shall be determined by subtracting the Energy Cost for Zone B from the Energy Cost for the entire Project. All of the Energy Cost for Zone B and ten percent (10%) of the Energy Cost for Zone A shall be a Common Expense as provided in Section 3.e below; ninety percent (90%) of the Energy Cost for Zone A shall be an expense of the individual Apartments, based on metered usage by those Apartments (in aggregate, the "Apartment Energy Cost,,),

The Board shall determine the allocation of the Apartment Energy Cost for each individual Apartment by individual metering for each such Apartment; such metering shall be based upon the measurement of electrical energy consumption for the fan motor within the fan coil unit (or the fan motors within the fan coil units, in the event that there are multiple fan coil units within any Apartment) (the "Apartment Fan Consumption") during the time that the following two (2) conditions exist with respect to each such fan coil unit:

the fan is on, and the thermostat is causing chilled water to be circulated through the coil (thereby using the chilled water to cool the Apartment).

The Board will determine each Apartment's pro rata share of the Apartment Energy Cost by multiplying such cost by a fraction, the numerator of which is the Apartment Fan Consumption for each Apartment (as determined by metering as provided in Section 3.b above) and the denominator of which is the aggregate Apartment Fan Consumption for all Apartments in the Project.

The Board shall assess the Owner of each Apartment a monthly air conditioning charge which shall be the pro rata share for that Apartment of the Apartment Energy Cost, determined in accordance with Section 3.c above.

The remaining costs of the central air conditioning system, as set forth below, shall be Common Expenses:

the cost of any electrical energy to produce and distribute chilled water for ZoneA which is not recovered under assessments to individual Owners under Section 3.d above.

(ii)

the cost of electrical energy to produce and distribute chilled water for Zone B; all costs of maintenance and repair of the air conditioning system;

(iii)

all costs of maintaining and repairing the air handlers, coils, filters and other components of the air conditioning system for individual Apartments; and

(v) all costs of replacgmt of components of the air conditioning system and any other miscellaneous expenses of the system.

Notwithstanding any provision of these Bylaws to the contrary, any repair or replacement of any components of the central air conditioning system necessitated by reason of the negligence, misuse or neglect of the air conditioning system by any Owner shall be at the expense of such Owner.

Apartment Owners ar advised that: the lower the fan speed (of the fan coil

unit used in cooling the Apartment), the more efficient the cost of such cooling;

(ii) smoke from tobacco products and from other sources may necessitate the changing of filters on a more frequent basis than the normal maintenance routine established by the Board and the cost of any such additional filters will be charged to the Apartment Owner; and

(iii) keeping drapes drawn, especially during daylight hours, will help to reduce the cost of air conditioning.

Monthly assessments to Owners for air conditioning charges under Section 3.d above shall be subject to collection in the same manner as the Common Expenses of the Project.

The provisions in this Section 3 are based upon the plans and specifications for the air conditioning system for the Project and not upon actual operational experience. Accordingly, this Section 3 should be liberally interpreted to allocate the cost of electrical energy to produce and distribute chilled water in a fair and equitable manner. The Board shall have the power to adjust individual assessments based upon malfunctioning air conditioning equipment or malfunctioning metering devices, as certified by a licensed engineer. In the event that it is not feasible or possible to make measurements in the manner provided in this Section 3, the

Board is empowered and authorized to make measurements in an alternative manner, provided that such alternative measurement is based upon the written opinion of a licensed engineer and is reasonable under the circumstances. Any other change to the basic formula and methodology of this Section 3 shall be done by amendment to these Bylaws.

ARTICLE VI

COMMON EXPENSES, APARTMENT EXPENSES AND TAXES

SECTION 1. Common Expenses.

As provided in the Declaration, the Owner of each Apartment shall be liable for and pay a share of the Common Expenses in proportion to his proportionate share of the Common Interest. In the event that the Owner shall be a vendee under Agreement of Sale, the vendor shall also be responsible, along with vendee for the payment of a share of the Common Expenses. In addition to the provisions for Common Expenses contained in the Declaration, Common Expenses shall include all charges, costs and expenses whatsoever incurred by the Association for and in connection with the administration and operation of the Project, including without limitation all charges for taxes (except real property taxes and other such taxes which are or may hereafter be assessed separately on each Apartment and the Common Interest in the Common Elements appertaining thereto or the personal property or any other interest of the Owner), assessments, insurance, including fire and other casualty and liability insurance, any liability whatsoever for loss or damage arising out of or in connection with the Common Elements or any fire, accident or nuisance thereon, cost of repair, reinstatement, rebuilding and replacement of the premises, yard, janitorial, and other similar services, wages, accounting and legal fees, management fees, start-up fees and other necessary expenses of upkeep, maintenance, management and operation actually incurred on or for the Common Elements, including Limited Common Elements, and the cost of all utility services, including water, electricity, gas, garbage disposal, telephone, and any other similar services, unless separately metered or otherwise separately attributable to an apartment or group of Apartments, in which case the amounts charged or attributable to each Apartment or group of Apartments, as determined by the Board with the advice of an engineer or a certified public accountant, or other such consultant shall be payable by the Owner of such Apartment or Owners of Apartments as the case may be as a surcharge or special assessment. The Common Expenses may also include such amounts as the Board may deem proper to make up any deficit in the Common Expenses for any prior year. The Common Expenses may also include such amounts as may be required, by special assessment, for the purchase or lease of any Apartment by the Board or its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of the Association, as permitted under Hawaii law or these Bylaws; provided, however, that the Board shall first obtain an Opinion of Counsel prior to any purchase of an Apartment, and provided further that the Board may not acquire and hold by way of lease or purchase more than one (1) Apartment, without first obtaining the approval of the Owners of at least sixty-five percent (65%) of the Apartments. Payments of Common Expenses shall be made to the Board, as agent of the Owners of the Apartments, and the Board shall transmit said payments on behalf of each such Owner to the third person entitled to said payments from each Owner.

The Board shall establish and maintain a General Operating Reserve by monthly assessment against (and payment by) all Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests in such additional amount as the Board determines to be adequate to provide financial stability in the administration of the Project, which additional amount shall be deemed conclusively to be savings of the Owners held for their benefit for Common Expenses not payable from monthly assessments. Unless otherwise determined by the Board, the General Operating Reserve assessment for each month shall be not less than five percent (5%) of the total monthly assessment for current Com. on Expenses during the initial three (3) years of the Project, from and after the first meeting of the Association. Thereafter, the Board shall from time to time determine the amount of the General Operating Reserve assessment; such assessment shall be in such amount that the General Operating Reserve shall be sufficient for projected repairs and replacement of Common Elements. The Board shall deposit the General Operating Reserve in an account with a safe and responsible depository as required by Section 10 of this Article VI. The General Operating Reserve may be kept in an account segregated from other Association accounts if the Board determines that a segregated account is in the best interests of the Association. At the discretion of the Board, the General Operating Reserve may be used to meet any deficiencies in operating funds from time to time resulting from delinquency by Owners in the payment of assessments for Common Expenses but shall not operate to exempt any Owner from liability to contribute his proportionate share of such expenses or to pay any such assessments therefor, and any funds withdrawn from the General Operating Reserve for that purpose shall be reimbursed upon the payment of such delinquent assessments. The proportionate interest of each Owner in the General Operating Reserve shall not be withdrawn, partitioned or assigned separately but shall be deemed to be transferred with each Apartment even though not mentioned or described expressly in the instrument of transfer. If the Condominium Property Regime established by the Declaration is terminated, the General Operating Reserve remaining after payment of all Common Expenses shall be distributed to all Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests, provided that in the event the Condominium Property Regime shall be reconstituted after termination as a Condominium Property Regime as to less than the entire original Project, the share of the Apartment Owners who will become Apartment Owners under the reconstituted Condominium Property Regime shall be paid to the Association for the reconstituted Condominium Property Regime.

The Developer shall collect from each initial purchaser of an Apartment at closing a sum equal to two (2) months' assessment for current common Expenses. Said sums shall be held for the Developer by the initial Managing Agent until the earlier of (a) four (4) months after seventy-five percent (75%) of the Apartments have been conveyed to Owners, or (b) three (3) years after the first Apartment has been conveyed to an Owner, at which time said sums shall be transferred to the Association. While such funds are in the possession of the Developer, the Developer shall not use such funds to defray construction costs or other expenses of the Developer, to make any reserve contributions, or to make up any deficit in the maintenance of the Project. At such time as the Developer transfers such sums to the Association, the Developer will be required to advance to the Association, in addition to the amount collected, an additional sum equal to the two (2) months' assessment for current Common Expenses as to those Apartments, if any, which remain unsold on the date such sums are transferred by the Developer to the Association. Thereafter, the Developer shall be entitled to be reimbursed for the amount, if any, so advanced out of the sales of the then remaining unsold units. Such sums received from the Developer shall be held by the Association as a segregated fund to be used only to meet unforeseen expenditures or to purchase any additional equipment. At the end of one (1) year from the date the Association receives such sums, the Association shall transfer any such sums then remaining to the General Operating Reserve account. From time to time, as specifically directed by the Association at any annual or special meeting, the Board may establish and maintain a Capital Improvements Reserve Fund and one (1) or more subparts thereof, by the monthly assessment against and payment by all the Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests. Each subpart of the Capital Improvements Reserve Fund shall be earmarked for specific new improvements or additions to the Project which shall have been specifically authorized by the Association at any annual or special meeting and the amount of each such subpart of the Capital Improvements Reserve Fund shall be such annual amount as the Association determines to be adequate (but no more) to provide for specific new improvement or addition to the Project. The assessments for each such subpart of the Capital Improvements Reserve Fund shall be deemed conclusively to be savings of the Owners held for their benefit for Common Expenses of a capital nature. Disbursements from said Capital Improvements Reserve Fund shall be made only upon authorization of the Board. The proportionate interests of each Owner in said Capital Improvements Reserve Fund and all interest earned thereon shall not be withdrawn, partitioned or assigned separately but shall be deemed to be transferred with each Apartment even though not mentioned or described expressly in the instrument of transfer. If the Condominium Property Regime established hereby is terminated, or if the Capital Improvements Reserve Fund or subpart thereof exceeds the cost of the particular new improvement or addition to the Project, or if the planned improvement is for any reason not implemented within a reasonable time (in any event not more than ten (10) years) after creation of said Capital Improvements Reserve Fund or subpart thereof, said Capital Improvements Reserve Fund remaining shall be distributed to all Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests, provided that in the event the Condominium Property Regime shall be reconstituted after termination as a Condominium Property Regime as to less than the entire original Project, the share of the Apartment Owners who will become Apartment Owners under the reconstituted

Condominium Property Regime shall be paid to the Association for the reconstituted Condominium Property Regime.

At the end of any year, if there shall be any excess assessments or General Operating Reserve or Capital Improvements Reserve Fund on hand, and if such funds shall be qualified to be treated as "exempt function income", as that term is defined by Internal Revenue Code Section 528, then the Association may file such documents as may be required to have such income treated as tax exempt.

SECTION 2. Collection and Payment of Common Expenses.

All Owners shall pay to the Association or the Managing Agent all monthly and special assessments of the Common Expenses against their respective Apartments as the Board from time to time may approve as being necessary or advisable for the payment of or other provision for the common Expenses of the Project. Except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws or the Declaration, all of such assessments shall be assessed among and against the Apartments in proportion to their respective Common Interests. Regular monthly assessments shall be payable in advance on or before the first day of each and every month and without notice or demand. Special assessments for Common Expenses and costs, expenses and fees recoverable by the Association under Section 514A-94, Hawaii Revised Statutes and the provisions of these Bylaws, and any penalties and late charges shall be payable on written statements therefor as from time to time rendered by the Board or the Managing Agent. The Association will pay or cause to be paid, for and on behalf of the Owners, all Common Expenses. The Board will annually render or cause to be rendered a statement to each Owner of all receipts and disbursements during the preceding year. Members of the Board and the Managing Agent shall not be liable as principals to third persons for the obligations of the Association or of any Owner or Owners.

SECTION J. Taxes and Assessments. Except as may be otherwise provided in the Declaration, each Owner of an Apartment shall be obligated to have the real property taxes for his own Apartment and its appurtenant interest in the Common Elements assessed separately by the proper governmental authority and to pay the amount of all such real property taxes so determined. The foregoing sentence shall apply to all types of taxes which now are or may hereafter be assessed separately by law on each Apartment and the Common Int rest in the Common Elements appertaining thereto or the personal property or any other interest of the Owner. Each Owner shall execute such documents and take such action as may be reasonably specified by the Board to facilitate dealing with the proper governmental authority regarding such taxes, other taxes and assessments. Each Owner shall be obligated to pay to the Board his proportionat.e sharE: of nny assessment by the Board for any time by the Board by multiplying such dollar limit by the Cost of Living Factor. In the event of a default or defaults in payment of any such assessment or assessments, in addition to any other remedies herein or by law provided hereof, the Board may enforce each such obligation as follows

If, in the opinion of the Board, any taxes or assessments may be a lien on the entire premises or any part of the Common Elements, the Board may pay such taxes or assessments and shall assess the same to the Owners in their proportionate share as determined by the Board. Such assessments by the Board shall be secured by the lien created by Section 4 of this Article VI.

By suit or suits at law to enforce each such assessment obligation. Each such action must be authorized by a majority of the Board at a regular or special meeting thereof and any such suit may be instituted on behalf of the Association, by the Board or by the Managing Agent, if the latter is so authorized by the Board in writing. Each such action shall be brought in the name of the Association by its Board and the Board shall be deemed to be acting on behalf of all the Owners. Any judgment rendered in any such action shall include, where permissible under any law, interest and a sum for reasonable attorneys' fees and costs in such amount as the Court may adjudge against such defaulting Owner. Upon full satisfaction of any such judgment, it shall be the duty of the Board to authorize any two (2) members thereof, acting in the name of the Board, to execute and deliver to the judgment debtor an appropriate satisfaction thereof.

At any time after the occurrence of any such default, the Board (acting upon the authorization of the majority thereof at any regular or special meeting) may give a notice to the defaulting Owner, with a copy to the mortgagee of such Owner, if such mortgagee has furnished its name and address to the Board, which said notice shall state the date of the delinquency, the amount of the delinquency and make a demand for payment thereof. Any Owner and any holder, insurer or guarantor of a mortgage on any apartment may file a written demand for notice with the Board; upon filing such demand, such party will be entitled to receive written notice from the Board of any delinquency in the payment of assessments with respect to the Apartment in excess of sixty (60) days. If such delinquency is not paid within ten (10) days after delivery of such notice, the Board may elect to record in the Bureau of Conveyances a notice of lien against the Apartment of such delinquent Owner. Such notice of lien shall state (1) the name of the delinquent Owner or reputed Owner, (2) a description of the Apartment against which claim of lien is made, (3) the amount claimed to be due and owing (with any proper offset allowed), (4) that the claim of lien is made by the Board pursuant to the terms of these Bylaws and the Act, and (5) that a lien is claimed against said described Apartment in an amount equal to the amount of the stated delinquency. Any such notice of lien (or the release thereof) shall be signed and acknowledged by any two (2) members of the Board or by the Managing Agent acting on the direction of the Board and shall be dated as of the date of the execution by the last such Board member (or Managing Agent) to execute said notice of lien.

Upon recordation of a duly executed original or copy of such notice of lien in the Bureau of Conveyances, the Board shall have all remedies provided in the Act. Each default shall constitute a separate basis for a notice of lien or a lien. Such lien may be foreclosed as provided by law and the Association shall be entitled to all such fees and expenses as may be allowed by law.

For the purposes of this Section 4, a certificate executed by any two (2) members of the Board or by the Managing Agent shall be conclusive upon the Board and the Owners in favor of any and all persons who rely thereon in good faith as to the matters therein contained, and any Owner shall be entitled to such a certificate setting forth the amount of any due and unpaid assessments with respect to his Apartment (or the fact that all assessments due are paid if such is the case) within fifteen (15) days after demand therefor and upon payment of a reasonable fee not to exceed Twenty-Five and No/100 Dollars ($25.00), provided that this Twenty-Five and Nc/100 Dollar ($25.00) limit may be adjusted from time to time by multiplying such dollar Limit by the Cost of Living Factor.

SECTION 5. Collection from Tenant. If the Owner shall at any time rent or lease his Apartment and shall default for a period of thirty (30) days or more in the payment of the owner's monthly or special assessments, the Board may, at its option, so long as such default shall continue, demand and

If the Board makes demand upon the lessee as aforesaid, the lessee shall not have the right to question the right of the Board to make such demand, but shall be obligated to make the said payments to the Board as demanded by the Board with the effect as aforesaid, provided, however, that the Board may not exercise this right if a receiver has been appointed to take charge of the premises pending a mortgage foreclosure or if a mortgagee is in possession pending a mortgage foreclosure.

SECTION 7. Waiver. The failure of the Board to insist in any one or more instances upon a strict performance of or compliance with any of the covenants of an Owner hereunder or to exercise any right or option herein contained, or to serve any notice, or to institute any action or summary proceeding, shall not be construed as a waiver, or a relinquishment for the future, of such covenant or option or right, but such covenant or option or right shall continue and remain in full force and effect. The receipt by the Board of any sum paid by the Owner hereunder, with or without knowledge by the Board of the breach of any covenant hereof, shall not be deemed a waiver of such breach, and no waiver, express or implied by the Board of any provision hereof, shall be deemed to have been made unless expressed in writing and signed by the President pursuant to authority contained in a resolution of the Board.
